About the Competition

This first-of-its-kind essay competition invites students and young professionals to explore critical issues in Indian governance, policy, and society. Topics range from the implications of a hung parliament and India's China policy to criminalization in politics and the NEET scam. Participants will present innovative ideas and solutions, contributing to discussions on India's political, economic, and social future.

Topics:

1. A House Divided: The Implications of a Hung Parliament on Democratic Governance; constitutional safeguards
2. The Dragon's Shadow: Analyzing the Effectiveness of India's China Policy
3. Crime and Power: The Troubling Intersection of Criminalization in Politics
4. Behind the Veil: Unpacking the Controversy of the Electoral Bond Scam
5. Scandals in Education: Unraveling the NEET Scam and Its Consequences
6. The Impact of New Criminal Laws on the Justice System in India: Progress, Challenges, and Future Directions
7. Evaluating the Accuracy of GDP Calculation in India: Is India Really the Fifth Largest Economy?
8. Abolish Income Tax? Exploring the Potential Economic Impact of Raising Interest Rates
9. The Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA) 2019 in India: Legal, Social, and Political Implications.

Note for participants: These are only topics and not titles. Authors are free to choose their titles for the essays.
